

Sermon Notes/Questions

The Greatest Inheritance Ever!

Galatians 4:1-11

- 1. Read Galatians 4:1-7 What changes when a person moves from being a slave to being God's child and heir? How might knowing God as our Father change the way we pray, serve, and respond when we fail?
- 2. Read Galatians 4:8-11 Why do you think people might return to familiar forms of bondage after receiving freedom in Christ? What could draw us back into trying to earn God's approval through religious activities, keeping rules, or gaining the approval of others?
- 3. If God welcomes us into his family through Christ, what does that mean for how we welcome one another?
How can we distinguish between faithfulness to Scripture and expecting others to follow our personal preferences or familiar traditions?
- 4. Freedom in Christ calls us to live as God's children and extend grace to others. What would that look like in a disagreement at church, in our conversations about change, or in our relationships across generations and cultures? Identify one practical step you could take this week to help

MISSIONARY PRAYER FOCUS

Please join us in praying for Multiply Maxym & Anya Oliferovski in Ukraine.

Dear friends, partners, brothers and sisters - all who care for Ukraine. The situation continues to worsen, as missile and drone attacks increase and more people leave the country for safety reasons. We do not put our hands down, but continue to serve in the middle of this man-made disaster. Please pray for MB churches to be continuously strengthened to serve their communities holistically - bodies, souls and spirits. Pray for the New Hope Center (Zaporishshia) and the Trauma Healing Center (Western Ukraine) to help others receive God's grace, peace, and joy in their lives. Pray for a just peace to come to our beautiful country. 1 Peter 5:10
