

MESSAGE NOTES & QUESTIONS

Living True Grace

Galatians 2:11-21

1. In Galatians 2:11–14, what was Peter doing that Paul considered inconsistent with the gospel? What does this reveal about the pressure we can feel to fit in with others?
2. In Galatians 2:15–16, what does Paul mean by being “justified by faith in Christ” rather than “by works of the law”? How does this shape the way we understand our relationship with God?
3. Paul says, “I have been crucified with Christ and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me” (2:20). What do you think this looks like in ordinary life: at work, at home, in relationships, or in the church?
4. In Galatians 2:21 warns against treating God’s grace as something unnecessary. Where might Christians today subtly rely on performance, reputation, or religious achievement instead of resting in Christ’s grace?
